KTN
the Knowledge Transfer Network

Industry Engaging with Digital Health: Getting Health Data Analytics onto the Map

Thursday 17th March 2016 1000 - 1500
Institute of Translational Medicine, Heritage Building
(Queen Elizabeth Hospital), Mindelsohn Way

Workshop sessions at this event will focus on scoping the opportunities and challenges for big data in healthcare from an industry perspective in order to inform a national strategy for developing health data analytics.

Agenda

	Tea, Coffee & Registration
1000 - 1015	Welcome & Introduction: Shaping a national action plan for health data analytics	Chris Taylor (UK-HDAN)
1015- 1025	Health KTN: the Digital Health agenda	David Calder (Health KTN)
1025- 1045	Big Data for Health: an Industry Perspective	Tim Andrews (ORCHA & Quaenam) Mike Gains (IMS Health)
1045 - 1145	What are the Healthcare Opportunities for Big Data?	Small Group Discussion
1145 - 1245	What are the Research Challenges for Health Data Analytics?	Small Group Discussion
1245 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1430	What are the barriers to exploiting the opportunities in healthcare? What are the enablers?	Small Group Discussion
1430 - 1500	Next steps	Chris Taylor (UK-HDAN)
	Close

@Man_Inf @KTNUK #UKHDAN